

PlasmaEYEZ for Boston® Materials

Plasma Treatment of GP lenses is a very effective enhancement to your laboratory's existing cleaning methods that removes any remaining residues from the lens manufacturing process. A potentially favorable outcome of the treatment process is a dramatic reduction in wetting angle. This wetting angle reduction may provide enhanced on-eye wettability and potentially increase comfort in certain cases.

% Reduction in Contact Angle after Plasma Treatment

